Heap Big Waters

FPC's Absurd Reply

on Arkadelphia Plant

Today's Quotation
The first duty of a Government is to live. It has no right to be a Government at all unless it is convinced that if it fell the country would go to everlasting smash.
— Arnold Bennett

A big dam produces some spectacular sights in high-water time. Herbert Dodson and I had a "lost" feeling wandering around the Narrows lake early Thursday morning with many landmarks submerged and the whole coastline changed.

Herbert landed our only bass — and we figured he was lost, too, grabbing a bait absent-mindedly while trying to find his way back to the channel.

There have been reports the water would go over the dam spillway for the first time, and the level is certainly at an all-time high, but it was still seven feet short of reaching the spillway when we saw it. However, the record stage has driven the backwaters of the lake an incredible distance into the surrounding hills. As of today the Narrows looks like an inland sea.

I can well imagine no agent of the federal government relishes the prospect of stopping off in Arkadelphia these days. To Clark county has come the incredible misfortune of having a vast new private industry announce its location there and then learn that the federalists are trying to block it.

Yesterday's development was the most unbelievable of the whole sequence of events since the politicians interfered two weeks ago. As you know, Reynolds Metals company chose the site near Arkadelphia for their 35-million-dollar aluminum plant and made a contract for electricity with the Arkansas Power & Light Co. Since a small amount of the power was to be furnished by a federal hydro-electric dam the terms of the contract had to be approved by the Washington government. Such approval was given by the Southern Power Administration, regional representative of the Department of the Interior. Later this approval was rescinded and final authority over the contract claimed by the Federal Power Commission in Washington. Then yesterday's papers carried this astonishing counter-proposal from the FPC.

It would approve the contract, but for only five years. The Reynolds company indignantly rejected this. How, said the company, can you expect private capital to invest 35 million dollars with no more protection than a five-year power contract? The company said the period should be 30 years at least.

What you have here is not only the sinister background of the Department of the Interior, one of the most politically ambitious of all federal bureaus, but an FPC proposal so transparent that it appears Washington is listening to the objections of other sections rather than trying to co-operate with a private industry, a private power company, and an Arkansas city and county.

The Reynolds company is right, and the FPC is wrong, on that five-year contract idea. Nearly 30 years ago a group of more than 100 Arkansas business men from Little Rock, Camden and El Dorado, visited the Carolinas on one of the late Luther Ellison's industrial tours, and we were told how that section got the South's pioneer textile and furniture factories. We were told that the plants would not locate inside city limits, for fear of political interference by city councils, and required long-term power contracts with private companies in order to give their new gamble a reasonable chance to succeed.

This is, and always has been, the rule with new industry, establishing big units in remote sections. Someone in the Department of Interior is using the federal stake in one hydro-power dam to put the finger on Arkadelphia's proposed new plant, either for political interests or to further the cause of public ownership of power. But it won't work.

If Arkadelphia is robbed of that big Reynolds plant by the Department of the Interior's finagling it will spell out in capital letters for the people of Arkansas for all time to come the fact that any federal-power plant means "the kiss of death" for industry.

The federal government has no appreciable power supply to offer Reynolds at Arkadelphia, and its contention that one paying hydro-electric dam gives it veto over a huge private industry is absurd. After this bitter experience Arkansas citizens may well be in a frame of mind to order the federalists to get out of the power business and leave our state alone.

30 Americans Die in Blast Aboard Cruiser

Worst Naval Disaster of Korean War

Tokyo, April 25 (AP) — Thirty American seamen were killed in an explosion in a gun turret on the cruiser St. Paul off Korea Monday. The Navy, announcing that today called it the worst naval disaster of the Korean War.

The Navy said a "gun powder fire of undetermined origin" set off the explosion in an 8 inch forward turret. A board is investigating. The St. Paul is commanded by Capt. Roy A. Gano of Falls Church, Va. She is the flagship of Rear Adm. Earl E. Stone, commander of Cruiser Division One.

The St. Paul was firing on Communist positions on the Korean east coast. It continued firing after the blast and still is in Korean waters. Communist shore guns were not firing at the American warship.

The blast rocked the heavy cruiser. The 30 victims were killed by the Navy said, mostly by asphyxiation due to burning gases. There were no injuries. All victims were in the turret.

The worst previous naval disaster of this war was June 21 when the U. S. destroyer Walke hit a mine off Wonsan. Twenty-six were killed and 40 wounded.

The St. Paul was firing on a Red rear stronghold at Kojo, about midway between the battle line and the besieged Red port of Wonsan. She had fired 88 rounds from her eight inch guns and 47 rounds from her five inch batteries when the explosion occurred at 3:55 p. m. Monday (1:55 a. m. EST).

The navy said the St. Paul had opened up her guns on Kojo after bombarding Red front lines for 24 hours with the destroyer Brinkley.

Byrd Gives on Version of What's Needed

New York, April 25 (AP) — Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.) says "only a strong and very determined president who has the conviction that the foundation stone of democracy is the maintenance of the national credit and a sound currency can bring stability to our federal fiscal jungle."

And he said in an address to newspaper publishers here last night, "whether that man be a Democrat or a Republican, if he stands firmly on this principle he will have my support and the support of Americans everywhere."

Byrd said the whole federal tax system needs revising. He called for an end to what he called government waste, saying: "Now we have a deficit period in prospect that shake our financial structure."

The senator spoke at a dinner sponsored by the Bureau of Advertising of the American Newspaper Publishers Association (ANPA).

The dinner wound up the ANPA's 66th annual meeting.

School Census to Be Taken in Hope District

A school census will be taken in the Hope District starting Monday, April 28, and the expected total is in the neighborhood of 3,000 students. Enumerators listed 2,930 students in the last census two years ago.

The Junior High PTA will take the census of white children in Hope while the Yeager Bandmothers will list Negro students. Both white and Negro students of Fulton will be enumerated by the respective PTAs.

Full cooperation is asked of all parents as the pre-school and school listing is very important.

Russell Hits Tactics of Kefauver

Atlanta, April 25 (UP) — Sen. Richard B. Russell opened his bid for the Democratic presidential nomination here today with a blast at the Florida campaign tactics of his Dixie rival, Sen. Estes Kefauver.

He accused Kefauver of "running" against Florida's Gov. Fuller Warren, a major target of the senate crime-investigating committee which the Tennessee headed. Russell, who faces Kefauver in a Florida popularity contest May 6, and again in a battle for the state's 24 convention delegates on May 27, said he intends to discuss "the issues" and hopes Kefauver would do the same.

The Georgia senator arrived by plane at his Winder, Ga., home early this morning for a brief visit with his 84-year-old mother before motoring here for his kick-off speech tonight before a sellout crowd at a $50 a plate dinner.

He moves south into Florida to open his primary battle against Kefauver with a speech Saturday at Gainesville.

Name of Cugat Is Magic in World of Entertainment

Xavier Cugat and his orchestra will appear at Fair Park Coliseum on Friday, May 2.

This simple announcement is enough to create a bottleneck at the entrance of any theatre or hotel in the country, for it presages the debut of what Americans everywhere know to be one of the most novel and entertaining musical contingents in show business.

Cugat, famed as the "Rhumba King" is a very happy phenomenon. Almost single handedly he has lifted the rhumba, conga and samba from a mere novelty to the point where it is now a regular and very popular part of our dancing fare.

Cugat's distinctive style, his superb arrangements and his clever sparkling showmanship makes him a potent attraction. During his twelfth season at the renowned Waldorf-Astoria in New York, he shattered every previous record for that hostelry.

On the air, Cugat's broadcasts command a huge listening audience both in this country and in South America, where they are short-waved. Cugat's platters for Columbia Records are a feature on almost every phonograph in the land.

KXAR to Broadcast Methodist Conference

A special broadcast "Report From San Francisco" will be presented over KXAR tonight at 7 p. m. featuring a report from the World Wide Methodist conference, currently in session at San Francisco.

America to Resume Military Aid to Iran

Tehran, Iran, April 25 (AP) — American sources said today Premier Mohammed Mossadegh's government and the United States have agreed on terms for resuming U. S. military aid to strategic oil-rich Iran.

Aid was suspended early in January because Mossadegh refused to sign a contract containing six commitments tying Iran to co-operation with the West, as provided under the U. S. Mutual Security act.

Mossadegh contended such an agreement would violate his neutrality in the East-West cold war. This hurdle was overcome in an exchange of notes between Mossadegh and U. S. Ambassador Loy Henderson Wednesday.

It was reliably reported that Mossadegh's note pledged Iran to support the United Nations charter with all resources at his command, build up its defenses, and fight any aggression directed against the country.

Henderson then informed Mossadegh that the U. S. State Department felt this policy statement made Iran eligible for renewed military aid.

Truman Just Blowing Off on Ultimatum

Washington, April 25 (UP) — The worst word person could use around the White House today was "ultimatum."

Members of President Truman's staff clinched at the mere thought of the word and hoped that their boss would not use it again in discussing international affairs.

Mr. Truman himself was responsible for the allergy. Yesterday he told his news conference that in 1946 he personally sent a stinging ultimatum to Soviet Marshal Josef Stalin that ran the Russians out of Iran.

Two hours later, the White House ruefully admitted that no such ultimatum ever was sent.

White House aides said Mr. Truman was speaking in non-technical terms and did not mean the word ultimatum in the usual diplomatic sense.

They argued that he was speaking generally of this country's opposition to Russian post-war occupation of Iran.

They pointed out, too, that this government did send the Soviet government a note on March 6, 1946, outlining the American position.

Flood Threat Over the Hump in Kansas

Kansas City, April 25 (AP) — The Kansas City area was over the hump today in its fight against the Missouri River but flood workers still maintained a vigil along the net-work of dikes for possible weak spots.

The flood-choked river continued to fall after reaching its peak here yesterday afternoon just a fraction under 30.7 feet. That was a little below the predicted crest of 31 and more than 10 feet under the top of the levees.

It was a record upstream flood until the muddy surge hit Kansas City. But from here on downstream the river stages were lower than the terrible flood of July, 1951, when the Kaw Kansas River, which joins the Missouri here, laid waste to the rich industrial areas of the two Kansas Cities.

Nothing like that happened this time. The record 1951 stage here was 36.2.

Hope Industrial Appreciation Day

Hope manufacturers and employees will be recognized as an important part of the economy of this city Saturday, April 26, with an "Industrial Appreciation day," sponsored by the merchants of Hope.

Some 25 manufacturing concerns will display industrial exhibits in the Brundage building at 214 East Second St. The displays are items which they manufacture.

Employees of these industries, some 1,500, are asked to visit the exhibit building for door prizes to be given away absolutely free. The public is invited but only industrial employees will be eligible for prizes.

U. S. Planes Sweep, Strafe Battlefront

Seoul, Korea, April 25 (AP) — Allied fighter bombers swept in low over the Korean battlefield today bombing, strafing Communist frontline positions a second consecutive day.

Dense clouds blanketing North Korea gave the Reds a temporary respite from aerial bombardment of hard hit railways and supply facilities. But Communist troop and artillery concentrations got the full treatment of bombs, rockets, jellied gasoline and machinegun bullets.

Ground action along the 155-mile battlefield was limited to patrol skirmishes and light Red probing attacks.

The Eighth Army said U. N. patrols twice drew heavy enemy fire northwest of Yoncheon on the West coast front.

The heavy cruiser St. Paul destroyed seven Communist bunkers and other Red facilities on the eastern end of the line Thursday, while the cruiser Manchester and destroyer Buck knocked out a half dozen Red coastal guns.

Carrier-based planes cut rail lines at 115 places in Northeastern Korea Thursday.

The Air Force announced a retaliation of an earlier report that Allied fighterbombers had knocked out eight Red tanks on the Central front Thursday. It said eight tanks were sighted, but only one was destroyed.

Ex-Bookie to Talk to Officers

New York, April 25 (AP) — Ex-bookie Harry Gross, whose silence weakened the conspiracy trial of 18 policemen last year, has agreed to talk at a police department hearing.

Police Commissioner George P. Monaghan announced yesterday that the plump bookie had decided behind prison bars to testify against 18 officers accused in the protection of Gross' 20-million-dollar a year gambling ring.

They have been tried at one departmental hearing and acquitted of disciplinary charges. Monaghan said they would be re-tried on the basis of what Gross has told officials.

Some of the 18 were among 18 officers on trial in Kings County Court last September when Gross, the state's key witness, suddenly refused to testify. The defendants were freed.

The court trial also involved police protection of Gross' bookmaking empire. The officers were accused of conspiring to protect it for money.

Courts Can't Interfere Says Attorney General

Washington, April 25 (UP) — The government asserted the doctrine today that President Truman has unlimited emergency powers and that the courts may not interfere with his exercise of them.

The doctrine was voiced before federal Judge David A. Pine by assistant Attorney General Holmes Baldrige in arguing against an industry request for return of government-seized steel mills to their owners.

Baldrige's sweeping declaration appeared to surprise the judge. "Is that your concept of our government?" Pine asked.

Baldrige said it was. There followed this question and answer: "Then the constitution limits congress and it limits the judiciary but does not limit the executive."

"That's the way we read the constitution."

Fulbright Raps Price Ceiling Suspension

Washington, April 25 (AP) Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark.) protested today that suspension of price ceilings on cottonseed oil and other commodities opened the door for lower ceilings for these same commodities.

"Frankly I do not like—and vigorously protest—your use of the suspension procedure as a device for rolling back the existing price ceilings," Fulbright wrote Ellis Arnall, director of the Office of Price Stabilization.

OPS earlier this week announced suspension of price controls on certain commodities now selling below established price ceilings. But, Fulbright said, at the same time, the OPS established new and lower ceilings on those commodities which would be imposed if prices on them rise to certain levels.

Taft Claims Enough Votes for Nomination

By WILLIAM W. HUGHES
Little Rock, April 25 (UP) — Sen. Robert A. Taft today claimed that he will receive at least 650 votes, or 47 more than enough to assure his presidential nomination, on the first ballot at the Republican national convention in July.

Taft added at a news conference here that "I think I have enough delegates in sight to win the nomination on the first ballot."

The Ohio senator will be the keynote speaker tonight at the state Republican convention.

Is It the Spirit of 1776 That Keeps America United or the Blue Plate Special?

By HAL BOYLE
New York, April 25 (AP) — What keeps us Americans together? Some say it is the unity of our ancestors — the flaming spirit of 1776.

I say that nothing has brought us together more often — nothing we have shared so many times — as the blue plate luncheon.

If there is anything that has knit America together, joined one citizen to another, it is the blue plate luncheon.

Tighter Prison Controls to Follow Riots

Jackson, Mich., April 25 (AP) — Officials of riot-racked Southern Michigan Prison moved today to tighten their control over the overflow inmate population and guard against any future mutiny in the ranks.

A convict rebellion ended yesterday only after the mutineers won their demands for 11 specific prison reforms.

However, state officials emphasized that the rioters still face prosecution for crimes committed during the rebellion.

Gov. G. Memmen Williams pointed out that as far as punishment went, the mutineers were promised only that there would be no reprisals by members of the State Department of Corrections.

And prison authorities said no reprisals were needed to restore law and order in the world's largest walled prison.

As a condition of surrender, leaders of the five-day mutiny voluntarily returned to cell block 15—the infamous disciplinary center where they seized a total of 13 guards as hostages to pressure their demands for charges and hold eight of them to the end.

"Take my hand"

"Take My Hand!" Thus has spoken our true Leader. As He journeys in the service of God, He calls women and men and children to walk with Him. He has led youth and age to peace and victory. He has been the "Christ of the Indian Road." He is the Christ of every road where God's children must walk.

What a privilege! Ordinary people may have high company. In this blessed invitation. As they enter upon the serious tasks of life, they may have royal fellowship. Especially to those who leave the home fireside, to face a lonely way, He calls... "Take My Hand." Not one of us is equal to meeting the world in our own strength. But we can be conquerors, if divine strength and wisdom flows in upon our souls.

To every one of us. He is repeating the gracious invitation of the centuries, "Take My Hand." Wonderful things have been done by those who heeded to the call. We do not need to walk alone. We must not walk alone. He will be our Teacher, our Friend, our Comforter, our Lord, our divine Comrade. Attend His Church! Take His Hand!

Schools Must Work Out Own Problems

Little Rock, April 25 (AP)—The Arkansas Board of Education says school districts are responsible for working out the equalization of white and Negro schools.

In other action at a special meeting held yesterday, the Board also relaxed its qualifications for renewal of teaching certificates.

On the equalization question, the board admitted that the problem of equal educational facilities "is primarily financial." But the group forced no solution to that phase.

It adopted a statement of policy, leaving the problem of the local school districts — with two exceptions. The board offered to make members of the education department staff available for consultation, and to actively support any legislation "indicated to achieve equal facilities and opportunities."

The board recommended that all local school boards, officials and patrons co-operate to develop a comprehensive plan to provide for the attainment of the goal of equal facilities and opportunities not later than the school year of 1955-56.

It also advised that the goal of equal salaries for teachers should be attained not later than the school year 1954-55.

Equality was defined by the board to include physical facilities, financial resources, length of term, textbooks and other instructional supplies and equipment, transportation facilities, salaries of teachers and other personnel and the level of teacher training.

The board did not mention three lawsuits pending in federal court concerning segregation in Arkansas schools. Pine Bluff Negro Attorney Harold Flowers filed the suits in an attempt to end segregation.

However, Ed McCusiston, Education Department director of Negro education, said that inequality was not entirely a racial problem.

He said that there is more inequality of education among white students among Negroes. He cited differences in the salaries of white teachers in Washington county and said: "It's just a matter of how wealthy a district happens to be."

McCusiston said more than 15 million dollars would be needed to bring buildings and other physical properties in the Negro schools up to the level of white schools. He added that 4.8 million dollars would have to be spent each year for operational expenses.

The teacher certificate renewal qualifications were 43-formed to place the emphasis on experience rather than college training. A teacher with a bachelor's degree may obtain a renewal if he completed at least three years' teaching experience on the old certificate. Or, if he had taught "successfully" in the year prior to expiration of the certificate renewal could be obtained.

Certificates issued before Jan. 1, 1930 to teachers with less than a bachelor's degree also may be renewed under those conditions.

Previously, teachers had to complete at least six additional college hours to renew a certificate.

The board also appointed Ralph McNeil, former superintendent of schools at Piggott, to a one-year term as supervisor in the Division of Rural Construction. He succeeds Ralph Trice.

Mrs. George Robison and Mrs. Fred Ellis were hostesses to the monthly Ladies Bridge Luncheon at the Hope Country Club Thursday.

Lunch was served buffet style to twenty members present. Bridge was played from four tables with Mrs. Terrell Cornelius winning high score and Mrs. Syd McMath winning second.

Coming and Going

Miss Roberta Howard will be the week end guest of Miss Anita Copeland at Hendrix College, Conway, and will attend the spring formal Saturday night.

Sydney McMath will spend the week end with Jerry O'Neal at Hendrix College, Conway, and will attend the spring formal Saturday night.

Mrs. Lohrey Spates, Mrs. A. A. Halbert, Mrs. E. O. Wingfield and Mrs. R. L. Brooch motored to De Queen yesterday and were the luncheon guests of Mrs. Hollis Smith. They later served as judges at the flower show given by the Crepe Myrtle and DeQueen Garden Clubs. The theme of the show was "Our House of Flowers."

DOROTHY DIX Meeting New People

Dear Miss Dix: Recently I moved into a new community. My sister-in-law has been living here three years, and in that time we have met many of her friends in her home. Now I meet some of them at afternoon club meetings.

Holt Files Fee as Candidate

Little Rock, April 25 (AP)—Jack Holt has become the second candidate to file for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination. He filed his corrupt practices pledge yesterday. Rep. Boyd Tackett has also filed.

Murray O. Reed of Little Rock also filed yesterday for chancellor of the First Division, First Chancery Circuit, embracing Pulaski, Lemoine, White and Prairie Counties.

Russell Lee Criner of Texarkana became the second candidate to file for nomination as state senator from District 8. Jack V. Clark of Texarkana previously filed for the position. District 8 includes Miller and LaFayette counties.

'Open Town' Group Active at Spa

Hot Springs, April 25 (AP)—The "open town" segment of Hot Springs may attempt to take over the Garland County Democratic Central Committee.

Committee Chairman Jacob King said today that 40 candidates have filed for places on the committee, which has been under the control for remnants of the GI group formerly headed by Gov. McMath.

Roy C. Raef, county clerk during the Leo P. McLaughlin reign in Garland county, filed the pledge cards for the candidates. McLaughlin was defeated by the GI faction in the party in 1948.

King said the wholesale filing, probably was sponsored by the "liberal" elements which won some of the GI-held posts in 1950.

Although McLaughlin has said he would seek the office of prosecuting attorney on the "independent" ticket this year, there is no indication he is connected with the "liberals" attempting to gain control of the county committee.

Texarkana College in Race Squabble

Texarkana, April 25 (AP)—A petition charging that Negro students have been denied entrance into Texarkana College here because of their race has been filed in Federal court.

The petition charges that Negroes are being denied their constitutional rights.

Officials, Companies Relations Improper

Washington, April 25 (AP)—Congressional investigators said today they have uncovered new evidence of "improper relationships between high-ranking government officials" and companies selling spare automotive parts to the government.

A House Expenditures subcommittee report did not mention details involving high-ranking officials. But it cited increased government business acquired by one company after employing a former ordnance inspector and another which hired a retired Army captain.

Hays (D-Ark.)
Hays said the bill will probably include several other military construction projects which the department seeks authority to build.

"But," Hays said, "in the economy mood Congress is in it might not approve large expenditures for these projects."

Mrs. Sedford Bell, North Little Rock.
Discharged: Mrs. Jimmy Simms and son, James Harvey, Jr. Texarkana, Bob Horton, Patmos.

Dear Miss Dix: I am 24 and going with a fellow 27. We've been going steady for 15 months now. I find him very tight with his money; he gambles, and isn't very sociable. He never mentioned marriage until I was forced by my parents to ask his intentions. He said it would be sometime this year. Do you think I can trust him?

Answer: What kind of parents do you have who not only countenance your friendship with so unsuitable a man, but actually encourage it? If he had to be asked to state his intentions, that should have been your father's job. Not yours. Why the yourself down to a man who is not only reluctant to marry you, but whose stinginess is a very poor recommendation for a good husband? He is probably evading marriage because he's too cheap to pay for a license or a ring. Drop him and find a boy who will go to the altar willingly.

Dear Miss Dix: I am 18 years of age and wish to join the WAVES but my friends are discouraging me. I think the service offers a fine educational opportunity, and I'd like to take advantage of it.

Answer: To do a good job as a member of our armed forces requires more incentive than merely a desire to acquire an education. While that, too, is a fine consideration, your main job is service to your country. If you are seriously interested in becoming a WAVE, see your nearest Naval Recruiting Office (you don't give your address or I could have directed you more specifically, where complete information is available).

Dear Miss Dix: I have been engaged to a girl for six months and plan to be married soon, but have heard that she drinks excessively.

Answer: First, don't gossip; ascertain for yourself if the girl drinks or not. If you are sure she does, out why she does. There may be a reason for her drinking. And if you are in a position to help her, do it. Take her to a doctor. Give her the girl a chance to rehabilitate herself, and then you can help her.

of another girl while he is in love with his wife?

Answer: For shame! Have you so little respect for yourself that you're to be just another one of these abominable creature's conquests? Haven't you, in 18 years, acquired some vestige of self-respect? A man who, at 28, not only has had two wives, but has also managed to acquire quite a reputation for infidelity, isn't worth a decent girl's "hello." Unless you want a ruined name, stop seeing him at once, and forget about him altogether!

M.M.
Answer: Though it is proper for the old residents to call on new members of the neighborhood, people are lax about this courtesy in many parts of the country. Your community, for instance, is largely composed of people who are themselves fairly new settlers. As such, they probably do not feel as bound by conventions as would residents of a long-established community. Waiting for people to call may keep you isolated too long; better forget the strict laws of etiquette and follow your husband's suggestion to invite the neighbors in for an evening. The important things to promote, after all, are friendliness and kindness rather than a strict adherence to rules.

Infatuated With Rove
Dear Miss Dix: A year and a half ago, when I was 17, I met a man of 22 to whom I became quite interested. He was married at the time, so our friendship dropped. Recently I met him again, and find that he is married — but to another girl. He is not faithful to his wife anyway. We renewed our acquaintance last week, and he asked me for a date. What I want to know is can a man still think

Arkadelphia Downs Hope by 7-2 Score

Arkadelphia exploited in the last inning last night to come from behind and defeat the Hope Bobcats baseball team 7 to 2 at Legion field.

Hope led throughout the game scoring their runs on seven hits in the first inning, mainly on doubles by Stanford and Martin. The visitors got six runs on five hits and three errors in the final stanza.

Top Smith was the losing hurler.

Teachers Win Cage Benefit

The High school faculty and the girls basketball team played a Cancer benefit game at the school yesterday-noon with the teachers winning by an 18 to 14 tally.

Admission was only five cents but the game netted $20.25 for the Remstead Cancer drive.

Pine Bluff Dumps Hot Springs 3-2

By The Associated Press

Wet grounds killed half of the Cotton States League schedule again last night. In the two games played, Pine Bluff defeated Hot Springs, 3-2, and Monroe dumped El Dorado, 6-2.

It was the third straight night every night of the season, in fact, that rain or wet grounds has washed out half of the program.

The Pine Bluff Judges touched a trio of Hot Springs pitchers for only three hits but used a total of eight bases on balls to win.

Hot Springs hurlers Bill Ginter, Fred Collins and John Sams walked in all the Judges' runs.

It was Pine Bluff's second straight win over the Judges.

A three-run home run by Nelson Daehn led Monroe in its 6-2 victory over El Dorado before a record opening night crowd of 2,753 paid customers at Monroe.

Reuben Bowden, Monroe left hander, pitched five-hit ball for his first win of the season.

The first five runs off El Dorado Southpaw Tommy Graham were unearned.

Dallas Likes First Negro Player

Dallas, April 24 (AP) — Dick Burnett, the oil millionaire who set records for spending money and packing in the fans, came up with another Texas League first this season — a Negro player.

He is Dave Hoskins, 27-year-old pitcher-outfielder who credits Satchel Paige with teaching him much of his baseball. And now Hoskins is hurling and battling Dallas to victory to the delights of the Negro populace. And he's proving popular with the white fans, too.

Last night he spun a 4-hitter against Oklahoma City and got four hits himself, driving in two runs. His work brought a 5-0 win.

Previously he had beaten Tulsa 4-2 with an 8-hitter. He got two hits. Burnett explained why he brought the first Negro into the Texas League like this:

BILL GUNTER

Magnolia-Sparking the Southern State Mulderider's affixed in early games has been Billy Gunter, flashy freshman shortstop from Hope.

A veteran of semi-pro baseball with the Hope Legionnaires, Gunter saw extensive service as a third baseman and pitcher. But since the blond, likeable Bill cast his lot with Coach Sam Bailey's diamond crew, he has filled neither position.

Crying need of a "take-charge" infielder in the Mulderider line-up placed the slick-fielding freshman at shortstop.

To date, the Riders have won six and dropped two, and for Southern State baseballers, this is a remarkable record indeed. Last year, they lost 10 of 14 outings. In 1950, they had a dismal 2-10 record.

In 1949, they managed only one victory, against a half of losses. This year's crew, bolstered by a good crop of lettermen and talented freshmen, is the best-looking "Rider" baseball squad in many years.

They have looked to be a real contender for AIC honors, and spent a 3-1 mark in conference play.

Gunter is easily the team's outstanding infielder, having committed only two errors in eight games. He hasn't found his batting eye as yet, but gets on base often via walks. He is a swift and daring baserunner, and an accomplished hurler. He squeezed home the winning run against Arkansas A and M recently with a perfect ninth-inning sacrifice.

Officers Seek Bluff Breakers

April 25 (AP)—A wide-eyed man on today for two who bluffed their way through the Sebastian County jail and a mop handle.

Bandit Leroy (Peck) of Ft. Smith, and Thomas of Texarkana, Ark., from the jail on the fifth floor of the courthouse last night.

Practice Maddux said

Murray was awaiting transfer to the state penitentiary to begin serving 10 years for the armed robbery of a liquor store here. He said Windsor was jailed yesterday on a federal charge of transporting a stolen automobile across a state line.

The break occurred as the prisoners were being marched to their cells before lights out about 9:45 p. m.

Sheriff Maddux said the escape happened this way:

Murray and Windsor hung back toward the end of the line of prisoners. As they reached the cells, both advanced on night jailer Charlie Myers. Myers surrounded the men because he

Picketing at Fort Smith Resumed

Ft. Smith, April 25 (AP)—Peaceful picketing of the Western Union office here has been resumed following lifting of an anti-picketing injunction by Chancellor C. M. Wolford.

Chancellor Wolford, who issued the injunction against Local 5 of the A. F. of M. Commercial Telegraphers' Union Wednesday, modified the order yesterday to allow "peaceful picketing in accordance with the law."

The injunction was issued on petition of Western Union following a picket line altercation between a striker and a non-striking employee. Both were arrested, charged with assault and freed on bond.

"Legal, peaceful picketing has been our policy all along," C. T. Anderson, vice president of Local 5, said. He said Chancellor Wolford's action "vindicated the strikers."

Joe R. Vental, manager of the Ft. Smith office, said picketing was all right with him as long as it was peaceful.

Thought they were armed with a knife and a club. The weapons turned out to be a spoon and a mop handle.

The prisoners forced Myers to take them in an elevator to the third floor of the building and unlock the elevator door leading to the corridor.

They left Myers unharmed and fled before the jailer could get to the sheriff's office on the first floor of the courthouse.
